

Dec. 67

Mr. Sherman Kent

Dear Mr. Kent:

The Director of Central Intelligence desires that your wealth of accumulated knowledge and experience remain available for advice and guidance in the work of the Central Intelligence Agency. Therefore, the United States Government, as represented by the Central Intelligence Agency, proposes to contract with you in accordance with the following arrangements:

1. Fee. For such advice, assistance, consultation and reports as may be requested of you by the Agency, you will be paid a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each consultation.

2. Expenses. You will be provided funds for travel and such other expenditures as are necessary under this contract.

3. Status. Your status under this agreement is that of an independent contractor. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as implying the creation of an employee-employer relationship.

4. Term. This agreement is effective as of _____ and shall continue until terminated by mutual agreement between the parties hereto.
